Nominations to the BDA Executive Committee

1. Expectations of the BDA Executive Committee
2. Process for nomination

Expectations of all BDA Executive Committee Members

The BDA Executive Committee is made up of elected members, appointed members and co-opted members. The current executive committee can be found here:

<https://www.dragonboat.org.uk/the-bda/executive-committee>

The operating rhythm of the BDA Executive Committee involves meetings once per month using video conference software (Microsoft Teams) and a face-to-face meeting once a quarter (location can be anywhere, but has tended to be near Warwick in a central location). There are ad hoc meetings during the year as and when the need arises. It is expected you should attend all meetings.

BDA Executive Committee members are also expected to attend the AGM, typically held in either March or April, and the BDA Congress held in October.

Each BDA Executive member will be involved in one or more pillar of the BDA Vision & Strategy, and in between meetings there will likely be actions that will need to be completed against that. The Vision & Strategy is available on the website at

<https://www.dragonboat.org.uk/the-bda/vision-strategy/>

The Treasurer or General Secretary generally doesn't need to be aligned with a pillar due to other responsibilities, but can be.

President: Mike Thomas

Process for nomination to the BDA Executive Committee

If you wish to be nominated to the BDA Executive Committee as either the Chairman or an Executive Committee member you will need to be seconded by two current BDA members (a BDA member is anyone who is currently a member or has got a BDA member number in the past 15 months).

Steps to take

1. Read and fill out the form entitled 'Nomination to Executive' and in the top box either write 'Chairman' or 'Member'. Make sure the entire form is filled out.
2. Ensure your two secondees have signed and filled in the information under the box 'formal nomination'.
3. Each nomination should also include a supporting resume on why the nominee feels they should be nominated to the committee. This resume will be made public to all current BDA members to help them with their vote.
4. Scan the fully signed form, attach the form and the supporting resume and email it to secretary@thebda.org.uk. If you can't scan and send the form via email, email the secretary and ask for instructions. You may need to send the form by post, although this is not preferred.
5. The Secretary will confirm the nomination and three weeks before the AGM will publish the members who have been nominated along with their supporting resumes. At this point the online voting system will be open to all current BDA members.
6. At the AGM, votes taken from the online voting system and votes submitted in person at the AGM will be counted and the nominees with the most votes will be appointed to the committee. It is expected you will attend the AGM to be presented to members if you are appointed. A short BDA Executive Committee meeting will be held after the AGM.

If you have any questions on the nomination process, the AGM or the expectations of the Committee and the specialist roles, please email secretary@thebda.org.uk.
